Assistant Prosecutor Receives Prosecutor of the Year Award

Mount Clemens, MI - The Michigan Chapter of the International Association of Arson Investigators (MIAAI), a professional association of fire investigation experts, united by a strong commitment to combat the crime of arson through professional fire investigation, has awarded Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Sian Hengeveld the Prosecutor of the Year Award for 2023. Congratulations Sian!

Sian Hengeveld and Anthony Sorentino conducted a five day jury trial on a murder and arson case. On April 24, 2023, 28 year old Dangelo Hubbard of Detroit was found guilty on all charges in the death of Lisa Marrone from Roseville by a Macomb County jury.

On Friday, February 4, 2022, Dangelo Hubbard drove to Lisa Marrone's residence, stabbed her over 75 times and inflicted blunt force trauma to her head resulting in her death. The next day Hubbard returned to the victim's residence and set it on fire.

During the trial, Hengeveld questioned Roseville Fire Investigator Lori Goldwater and David Stayer from Rehmann Corporate Investigative Services, regarding the origin and cause of the fire. Both Goldwater and Stayer, through pictures and testimony, helped tell the story of this horrific and devastating crime.

Hengeveld will be recognized during the MIAAI Arson School Banquet on Wednesday, May 24, 2023 at the Radisson Hotel in Lansing. MIAAI's goal is to serve as the global resource for those working in and associated with the fire, arson, and explosion investigation profession with respect to fire safety and prevention; arson investigation, determination, and prosecution; and fire loss claims and litigation.
