Former Roseville Police Officer Arraigned on Possessing Child Sexually Abusive Materials

Mount Clemens, MI - Yesterday, 23-year old Issiah Rumbley, a former Roseville Police Officer, was arraigned for allegedly possessing child sexually abusive materials.

Rumbley was charged with Using a Computer to Commit a Crime (seven-year felony), and Possession of Child Sexually Abusive Material (four-year felony).

Rumbley was arraigned in Warren District Court in front of Judge Bieda. Judge Bieda set bond at $5,000 cash. The Probable Cause Hearing is scheduled for Thursday, September 21, 2023 at 8:45am.

"The charges against the defendant serve as a stark reminder that no one is above the law, and we will spare no effort to protect our most vulnerable, ensuring that justice is served, said Macomb County Prosecutor Peter J. Lucido.

The Macomb County Prosecutor's office represents the people. We are committed to achieving justice and following the laws of the State of Michigan. All that are accused of a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
