Mount Clemens, MI - On Monday, October 31, 2023, a 28 year old Macomb man was arraigned in connection with rear ending another vehicle in Mt. Clemens.

It is alleged that on Sunday, October 29, 2023, Jake Klein was driving while intoxicated and rear ended another vehicle. The driver of the vehicle succumbed to the injuries sustained in the crash.

Klein is charged with Operating While Intoxicated Causing Death (15 year felony). He was arraigned in 41B District Court by Magistrate Ryan Zemke who set a $25,000 personal bond. A Probable Cause Hearing is scheduled for Monday, November 13, 2023 at 1:30pm in front of District Court Judge Carrie Fuca.

“In the aftermath of a fatal collision, we stand as advocates for the victim. When a drunk driver steals a life, we prosecute for the ones who will never return home and we strive to bring closure to those whose lives have been forever altered,” said Macomb County Prosecutor Peter J. Lucido.
