Guilty on All Counts

Mt. Clemens, MI -Today, Dakota Blust, 28 years old, was convicted on all counts including second-degree murder in connection with an argument in Chesterfield Twp.

In July 2021 Dakota Blust drove to a female friend's house and got into an argument with her fiance, Andrew DeWulf. During a physical altercation Blust shot the man to death in front of his Chesterfield home.

"Assistant Prosecutor Steve Fox did a great job getting a conviction in this six day trial," said Macomb County Prosecutor Peter J. Lucido..

Blust was charged with second degree murder (life felony), carrying a concealed weapon (5 year felony), and felony firearm (2 year felony). After a 6 day trial, the jury came back with guilty on all charges in less than two hours. Sentencing will be held on Thursday, March 9, 2023 in front of Judge Druzinski.

The Macomb County Prosecutor's office represents the people. We are committed to achieving justice and following the laws of the State of Michigan. All that are accused of a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
