Macomb Twp. Man Arraigned for Assaulting Boyfriend

Mount Clemens, MI - Yesterday, a Macomb Twp. man was arraigned in connection with an alleged domestic violence incident in the victim's Macomb Twp. home.

It is alleged that on Sunday, October 15, 2023, Robert Bryson III, age 33, got into a verbal argument with his boyfriend over dirty dishes. Bryson III allegedly escalated the incident into a physical altercation that resulted in the defendant biting and strangling the victim. The victim is in critical condition.

Roberty Bryson III is charged with Assault with Intent to Maim (10 year felony), Assault with Intent to do Great Bodily Harm Less than Murder or by Strangulation (10 year felony), and Aggravated Domestic Violence (one-year misdemeanor).

Bryson was arraigned by Shelby District Court Judge Douglas Shepherd where bond was set at $250,000 cash/surety. A probable cause hearing is scheduled for Monday, October 30, 2023 at 1:30 pm and the preliminary exam is scheduled for Monday, November 6, 2023 at 3:00 pm.

"This incident serves as a reminder that domestic violence can manifest in the most unexpected moments, often erupting from trivial disputes. As part of our commitment to justice and the safety of our community, the Macomb County Prosecutor's Office is dedicated to upholding the principles of justice, protecting the rights of the community, and fostering a safe environment for all residents," said Macomb County Prosecutor Peter J. Lucido.

The Macomb County Prosecutor's office represents the people. We are committed to achieving justice and following the laws of the State of Michigan. All that are accused of a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
