New Haven Man Allegedly Stabs Brother to Death

Mount Clemens, MI - Today, a New Haven man, age 24, was arraigned in connection with his brother's death.

It is alleged that on Sunday, January 28, 2024, Nathan Land stabbed his brother once after an altercation. The brother died of his injuries.

Nathan Land was charged with Homicide - Manslaughter (15 year felony). He was arraigned in New Baltimore District Court where Magistrate Joseph Cozzolino set bond at $100,000 cash/surety, no 10%. Land is to have no contact with the witness and upon release must wear a GPS tether, no drugs, alcohol, or weapons and not leave the state.

A Probable Cause Hearing is scheduled for Thursday, February 8, 2024 at 9:00 am and a Preliminary Exam is scheduled for Thursday, February 15, 2024 at 9:00 am by District Court Judge William Hackel III.

"This incident is a reminder that the cycle of abuse within families can escalate to unimaginable tragedies. Our pursuit of justice is unwavering as we strive to bring solace to the grieving family and send a resounding message that violence within our homes will not be tolerated," said Macomb County Prosecutor Peter J. Lucido.

The Macomb County Prosecutor's Office represents the people. We are committed to achieving justice and following the laws of the State of Michigan. All that are accused of a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
