

Cost of Living Comparison

From housing to groceries, your dollar goes further when you live in Macomb County.

	National Average	Austin, TX Metro	Macomb County, MI	San Diego, CA	Washington D.C. Metro
Cost of Living Index	100	106.6	95.9	142.2	117.7
Average Home Price	$405,750	$491,416	$259,951	$901,285	$635,504
Total $ Spent on Groceries/Housing/Transportation	$47,584	$55,649	$42,873	$59,565	$68,027
Median Net Worth	$157,240	$168,444	$190,769	$163,440	$284,018
Average Engineering Salary	$108,253	$115,513	$101,524	$122,442	$125,313

Sources: COL Index, Average Engineering Salary: Lightcast
Avg Home Price, Total $ spent, Median Networth: ESRI Business Analyst

Your paycheck may be higher in other areas, but after expenses, you make more when you live, work and play in Macomb County.

Find additional cost comparisons at macombgov.org/living-why-move-to-macomb

Why move to Macomb County, Michigan?

You can live anywhere, so why move to Macomb County? It's simple. Our community is affordable. It has a thriving economy with high-paying jobs. And opportunities for outdoor recreation are endless. We are a welcoming and safe County. Somewhere you can put down roots. A place to start a family, retire or create a new beginning. Whatever you are looking for, you can find it here.

Fast facts

- Michigan ranks 15th in the nation for affordability in housing, groceries, utilities, transportation and health.
- Macomb County is part of the greater Metro Detroit area, located just north of the city. This proximity to one of the largest urban centers in the country gives residents of Macomb easy access to a wide range of regional and cultural amenities.

By the numbers

- 32 miles of freshwater shoreline on Lake St. Clair
- 12 local downtowns
- 20 places to dine on the water
- 24 golf courses
- 70 active marinas
- 180 miles of regional trails
- 3,800 acres of municipal parks
- 2.83 violent crimes/10.18 property crimes per 1,000 people, making Macomb a safe place to call home

FIND MORE INFORMATION ON MACOMB COUNTY
MakeMacombYourHome.com

