Macomb County Circuit Court to celebrate Adoption Day on November 25, 2014

Macomb County Circuit Court will celebrate Adoption Day on Tuesday, November 25, 2014. The event begins at 8:30 a.m. and will be held on the second floor of the Circuit Court Building, 40 N. Main Street, Mount Clemens, Michigan.

Adoption Day is a Thanksgiving holiday tradition held in courts across the state in order to celebrate with families who are adopting children and to reach out to families in Macomb County who may be thinking about adoption. This event provides an opportunity to educate the community about the many children in the foster care system who are waiting to find an adoptive home, as well as, to watch adoptions being confirmed by circuit court judges.

Michigan Supreme Court Justice David F. Viviano, who will be taking part in the event, said, "I am looking forward to attending Macomb County's Adoption Day, which is part of a national effort to raise awareness and help the thousands of children in foster care who are waiting to find permanent homes with loving families. Hopefully, watching adoptions occur and hearing from other adoptive parents will inspire families in our community to consider adoption."

On behalf of the Circuit Bench, Chief Judge John C. Foster said, "It is a privilege for the Macomb County Circuit Court to be a part of this exciting celebration that is happening across the state. One of the most rewarding things that we get to do as circuit court judges is to be a part of the adoption process. Having an impact on children and families in Macomb County is an honor and I hope that the community will join us at this important event."
