

dig·ni·ty

/'dignətē/

noun. The state or quality of being worthy of honor or respect

Creating a culture of dignity is a process, and it begins with acknowledging the value of every person we encounter, including ourselves. Dignity does not have to be earned, we are all born worthy of honor; it is inherent in our very existence. Dignity is demonstrated through action, and refined through practice. It is spoken, heard, seen and felt in every interaction we have, within ourselves, with our coworkers and with our communities.
