FRIEND OF THE COURT ENFORCEMENT "SWEEP"

Sheriff Anthony Wickersham and the Macomb County Friend of the Court announced a week-long bench warrant sweep in an effort to arrest individuals with outstanding warrants for non-payment of child support. Sheriff Wickersham's Friend of the Court Enforcement Unit will devote extra resources to accomplish this endeavor. The week long sweep will begin Monday, May 12, 2014.

Sheriff Wickersham and the Friend of the Court are making this sweep public to afford those with outstanding bench warrants the opportunity to appear at the Friend of the Court Office and avoid arrest. Additionally, any individuals who appear will be afforded the opportunity to have their circumstances reviewed to determine if they qualify for a special program that can help substantially reduce state-owed arrearages.

Should anyone in the public wish to provide a tip regarding the whereabouts of an individual with an outstanding Friend of the Court warrant, please call (586) 469-5756 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.
