Washington Twp. Man Bound Over to Macomb Circuit Court on Eight Charges including Homicide

Mt. Clemens, MI - A 46-year-old Washington man has been bound over to the Macomb County Circuit Court in connection with a shooting resulting in the death of his wife.

It is alleged that Matthew Louis Mollicone and his wife drove to a residence in Ray Twp. to advise the male victim to stop having contact with the defendant's wife. After arriving at the residence the defendant entered the garage, approached the male victim, and reached for a firearm in his waistband. The male victim reached for his handgun and fired over the defendant's head. The two men exchanged gunfire and the male victim was shot in the leg. After being shot, he tried to run away from Mollicone but the defendant continued to fire his weapon at the male victim. The defendant returned to his vehicle with his wife, gunfire between the two men continued resulting in the wife's death.

Matthew Mollicone was charged with homicide (life without parole), assault with intent to murder (life or any term of years felony), carrying a weapon with unlawful intent (5 year felony), assault with a dangerous weapon (4 year felony), and four counts of felony firearm (2 year felony). Today, he was bound over to Macomb County Circuit Court on all charges. He will be arraigned in front of Judge Sabaugh on Wednesday, February 15, 2023 at 9am.

The Macomb County Prosecutor's office represents the people. We are committed to achieving justice and following the laws of the State of Michigan. All that are accused of a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
