Four Arraigned on Armed Robbery and Assault with Intent to Murder Charges in Warren

Mt. Clemens, MI -Today, four young adults were charged and arraigned in connection with armed robbery, assault with intent to murder, and weapons charges from a January 31, 2023 incident.

Eleze Green, 19 years old, was charged with armed robbery (life in prison) and assault with intent to murder (life in prison).

Elijah Dove, 20 years old, was charged with armed robbery (life in prison) and assault with intent to murder (life in prison).

Javion Adams, 19 years old, was charged with armed robbery (life in prison), two counts felony firearm (two year felony), assault with intent to murder (life in prison), carry a concealed weapon (5 year felony).

Dangelo Dove, 22 years old, was charged with armed robbery (life in prison), felony firearm (two year felony), assault with intent to murder (life in prison), carry a concealed weapon (5 year felony).

“This situation was very dangerous and put the lives of the community in peril. The effects of violent crimes like this can have a lasting impact,” said Macomb County Prosecutor Peter J. Lucido.

Warren District Court Judge Steven Bieda in Warren District Court set bond for all four defendants at $1 million cash. If they make bond they will be required to wear a steel cuff tether and have no contact with witnesses or the victim.

The Probable Cause Conference is scheduled for Tuesday, February 14, 2023 at 8:45am and the Preliminary Exam is scheduled for February 21, 2023 at 8:45am in Warren District Court.

The Macomb County Prosecutor’s office represents the people. We are committed to achieving justice and following the laws of the State of Michigan. All that are accused of a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
