Peeping Tom Arraigned in Warren

Mount Clemens, MI - A Detroit man arraigned today in connection with peeping through a window in Warren. He was arraigned in February 2023 for similar charges in Eastpointe.

It is alleged that Marquis Fleming, 41 years old, used a step ladder to peek through a young girls' windows. Fleming was charged with one count of window peeping (a 90 day misdemeanor) in Warren.

“It is despicable that someone would prey on young children. This type of crime can quickly escalate to more serious crimes against young females. I would like to thank Eastpointe and Warren Police Departments for working together to get the accused off the streets,” said Macomb County Prosecutor Peter J. Lucido.

Fleming was arraigned in Warren District Court. Judge Bieda set his bond at $25,000.00 cash/surety and upon release

The Macomb County Prosecutor's office represents the people. We are committed to achieving justice and following the laws of the State of Michigan. All that are accused of a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
