Man Charged and Arraigned for Making a Threat to Shoot Up Richmond McDonald's

Mount Clemens, MI - Today, a 21 year old Clinton Twp man was charged and arraigned for threatening to shoot up the Richmond McDonald's restaurant where his ex-girlfriend works.

It is alleged that on March 1, 2023 Kyle Woodard called the Richmond McDonald's restaurant to see if his ex-girlfriend was there. When they refused to tell him, he called back numerous times threatening to shoot her and the entire restaurant.

"Making a threat to shoot up a restaurant is a serious crime. We will not hesitate to charge the 20 year felony for this type of behavior," said Macomb County Prosecutor Peter J. Lucido.

Kyle Woodard is charged with Threat of Terrorism (20 year felony,) Using a Computer to Commit a Crime (10 year felony,) and Malicious Use of a Telecommunications Device (6 month misdemeanor.)

The defendant was arraigned in Romeo District Court. Judge Andary set Woodard's bond at $500,000.00 cash/surety only, no 10% with bond conditions of no contact with his ex-girlfriend or any McDonald's, a steel cuff GPS tether, no possession of a weapon, no drugs or alcohol with testing once a week. Further, he must obtain an updated mental health diagnosis, take all prescribed medications, and he was also referred to Community Mental Health.

The defendant's probable cause hearing was scheduled for Tuesday, March 14, 2023 at 1:00pm with his preliminary exam scheduled for Tuesday, March 21, 2023 at 10:45am.

The Macomb County Prosecutor's office represents the people. We are committed to achieving justice and following the laws of the State of Michigan. All that are accused of a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
