Detroit Man Sentenced to 25-40 years in Criminal Sexual Conduct Conviction

Mount Clemens, MI - Today, Dewon Henderson, a 37 year-old man from Detroit, was sentenced in front of Macomb County Circuit Court Judge Kathryn Viviano for his guilty conviction of Criminal Sexual Conduct.

In December 2021, Dewon Henderson sexually assaulted a minor in a hotel in Roseville. Henderson was charged with two counts of Criminal Sexual Conduct in the First Degree (life felony). On Friday, June 16, 2023, a Macomb County jury convicted Henderson on all counts after a four-day jury trial by Assistant Prosecutor Lisa Lozen.

Today, Henderson was sentenced to a mandatory minimum of 25 years to 40 years in the Michigan Department of Corrections. He must register on the Michigan Sex Offender Registry, have lifetime electronic monitoring, and pay fines and costs.

“Our commitment to safeguard the innocent and protect the voiceless remains unwavering. This sentence speaks not only to the severity of the offense but dedication of the Roseville Police Department. We send a clear message to those who would prey on the innocent that we will pursue you relentlessly, and you will face the full weight of the law,” said Macomb County Prosecutor Peter J. Lucido.

The Macomb County Prosecutor’s office represents the people. We are committed to achieving justice and following the laws of the State of Michigan.
