Two Men Arraigned in Murder of Missing Warren Man

Mount Clemens, MI - Today, two men were arraigned in connection with the murder of a missing Warren man.

It is alleged that on Thursday, June 8, 2023, 24-year old Donald Renfroe shot and killed his roommate in their Warren apartment. It is also alleged that 28-year old Darius Glenn of Detroit helped Renfroe conceal the crime. The victim was reported missing on Friday, June 9, 2023.

Renfroe is charged with First Degree Premeditated Murder (life without parole felony), Tampering with Evidence (10 year felony), Concealing the Death of an Individual (five-year felony) and Felony Firearm (two-year mandatory felony). Darius Glenn is charged with Tampering with Evidence (10 year felony), Concealing with Death of an Individual (five-year felony), and Accessory After the Fact to a Felony (five-year felony).

Both men were arraigned in Warren 37th District Court by visiting Judge Denis LeDuc. Judge LeDuc set Darius Glenn's bond at one million dollars cash/surety, with a steel GPS tether if released. Donald Renfroe is being held without bond.

Both men's Probable Cause Hearing is scheduled for Thursday, September 7, 2023 at 8:45am and their Preliminary Exam is scheduled for Thursday, September 14, 2023 at 8:45am in front of Warren District Court Chief Judge John Chmura.

"A life was cut short in the very dwelling that should have been a safe place. My office will stand as the voice of the victim, to recount the betrayal, and expose the acts that stole this victim's life and destroyed a family," said Macomb County Prosecutor Peter J. Lucido.

The Macomb County Prosecutor's office represents the people. We are committed to achieving justice and following the laws of the State of Michigan. All that are accused of a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
