Warren Man Arraigned for Stabbing His Wife to Death

Mount Clemens, MI - Today, a 56 year old Warren man was arraigned in connection with his wife's death.

It is alleged that on Saturday, September 30, 2023, police were called to a gas station where Ricardo Orozco was sitting in the driver's seat of his Dodge Durango. Orozco's wife was found deceased in the back of the Durango with multiple stab wounds.

Orozco is charged with Second Degree Murder (life felony). He was arraigned in 37th Warren District Court by Judge Michael Chupa. Judge Chupa set bond at two million dollars cash/surety. If the defendant posts bond he is to wear a GPS tether and must forfeit his passport. A probable cause hearing is scheduled for Tuesday, October 17, 2023 at 8:45 am.

"This tragic event has destroyed a family. October being Domestic Violence Awareness Month, let's remember that violence is never the answer," said Macomb County Prosecutor Peter J. Lucido.
