Flynn was arraigned in Eastpointe District Court in front of Magistrate Mark Makoski. Magistrate Makoski set bond at $1.5 million cash/surety only, no 10%. If the defendant is released on bond he is to wear a GPS steel cuff tether, be on home confinement, have no weapons or firearms, and have no contact with any witnesses or victims. Flynn was also referred to Community Corrections for a mental health assessment. Macomb County Prosecuting Attorney Peter J. Lucido's Office requests a mental health assessment as a bond condition for every gun crime to provide an opportunity to get any needed mental health treatment before a suspect gets a chance to commit another gun crime.

“Today, we made it clear that our community will not tolerate habitual offenders who choose a life of crime. We affirm our commitment to protecting the innocent and ensuring that the accused face the consequences of their actions,” said Macomb County Prosecutor Peter J. Lucido.

The Macomb County Prosecutor’s office represents the people. We are committed to achieving justice and following the laws of the State of Michigan. All that are accused of a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
