15 year-old charged with making false bomb threat to school

Mt. Clemens, MI - The Macomb County Prosecutor's Office charged and petitioned a 15 year-old boy for threatening to blow up Fraser High School.

It is alleged this juvenile threatened to blow up his school following a verbal confrontation with the principal. The juvenile is charged with a threat of terrorism (20 year felony) and resisting and obstructing (2 year felony).

"This nonsense needs to stop! Students need to refrain from making these threats and ruining their futures," said Macomb County Prosecutor Peter J. Lucido.

The preliminary hearing for the juvenile was today, December 6, 2022 in front of Referee Harrison. The referee followed the Macomb County Prosecutor's recommendation that bond be denied. The court ordered a mental health evaluation.

The Macomb County Prosecutor's office represents the people. We are committed to achieving justice and following the laws of the State of Michigan. All that are accused of a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
