Fence company owner takes thousands without doing the work

Mt. Clemens, MI -Today, a Macomb woman had a probable cause conference after being arraigned on false pretenses with intent to defraud.

It is alleged that 40 year old Laura Dietz, owner of Dietz Fence Company, took thousands of dollars from three different victims in exchange for fence jobs. Work was never started, victims were not able to make contact with Dietz after the initial payment, and the money was not returned.

Dietz was charged with three counts of false pretenses with intent to defraud $1,000-$20,000 (five year felony). The probable cause conference was held today in front of Judge Shepherd in Shelby Township District Court and an exam is scheduled for March 7, 2023 at 3pm.

The Macomb County Prosecutor's office represents the people. We are committed to achieving justice and following the laws of the State of Michigan. All that are accused of a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
