Two Detroit Men Bound Over to Macomb County Circuit Court for Human Trafficking

Mount Clemens, MI - On Friday, January 26, 2024, 37th Warren District Court Judge Michael Chupa bound over two Detroit men to Macomb County Circuit Court in connection with alleged Human Trafficking.

It is alleged that on November 3, 2023, a human trafficking victim escaped Aaron Kaycee-Lynardo Streety and Bernard Desean Harris who forced her to perform sex acts with multiple men for money at a Warren motel.

Aarong Kaycee-Lynardo Streety, age 38, is charged with Human Trafficking Enterprise involving Kidnapping, Criminal Sexual Conduct or Death (life felony), Criminal Sexual Conduct in the First Degree (life felony), Prostitution / Pandering (20 year felony), Unlawful Imprisonment (15 year felony) and Felony Firearm (two year mandatory felony). Streety is being charged as a habitual third offense offender. He was arraigned on Tuesday, November 21, 2023 where Warren District Court Judge Suzanne Faunce set bond at $2 million cash/surety.

Bernard Desean Harris, age 23, is charged with Human Trafficking Enterprise Involving Kidnapping, Criminal Sexual Conduct or Death (life felony), Criminal Sexual Conduct in the First Degree (life felony), Prostitution / Pandering (20 year felony), Unlawful Imprisonment (15 year felony) and four counts of Felony Firearm (two year mandatory felony for each count). Harris was arraigned on Monday, November 6, 2023 in Warren District Court where District Court Judge Steven Bieda set bond at $500,000 cash/surety.

"Our pursuit of justice is resolute, and we stand united in the fight against the crime of human trafficking, advocating for the rights and dignity of the victims involved," said Macomb County Prosecutor Peter J. Lucido.

Both defendants are in the Macomb County Jail and are scheduled to be arraigned on Monday, February 12, 2024 at 1:30 pm in the Macomb County Circuit Court.

The Macomb County Prosecutor's Office represents the people. We are committed to achieving justice and following the laws of the State of Michigan. All that are accused of a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
