Warren Man Bound Over to Macomb County Circuit Court for Allegedly Killing Autistic Teen in Hit and Run

Mount Clemens, MI - Today, Justin Spangle, age 43, was bound over to Macomb County Circuit Court for allegedly hitting an autistic teen with his vehicle and driving away.

It is alleged that on August 18, 2023, Justin Spangle was driving his car in Roseville where he struck the victim, and fled the scene. The victim died from his injuries. Spangle is charged with Driving While License Suspended Causing Death (15 year felony), Tampering with Evidence (ten year felony), and Failure to Stop at the Scene of an Accident Resulting in Death (five year felony).

Today, Roseville District Court Judge Alyia Hakim bound Spangle over to the Macomb County Circuit Court. Hakim also granted the defendant's request to remove his GPS tether. Spangle is scheduled to be arraigned in Macomb County Circuit Court on Monday, February 26, 2024 at 1:30 pm by Circuit Court Judge Jennifer Faunce.

"These alleged actions demand accountability. Our commitment is to pursue justice for the victim's family. We will diligently present our case in Macomb County Circuit Court, seeking a fair and just resolution that upholds the principles of justice," said Macomb County Prosecutor Peter J. Lucido.

The Macomb County Prosecutor's Office represents the people. We are committed to achieving justice and following the laws of the State of Michigan. All that are accused of a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
