Roseville Man Allegedly Beats His Roommate to Death

Mount Clemens, MI - Yesterday, a 54-year-old Roseville man was arraigned for allegedly killing his roommate.

It is alleged that on Wednesday, January 31, 2024, Mark Newsome got into a verbal altercation with his 72-year-old roommate which escalated into a physical altercation. Newsome punched the victim, Dale Mitchell, in the head several times. Mitchell died of his injuries.

Newsome is being charged with Second Degree Murder (life felony). He was arraigned in Roseville District Court where District Court Judge Kathleen Tocco denied bond. A Probable Cause Hearing is scheduled for Wednesday, February 14, 2024 at 8:30 am and a Preliminary Exam is scheduled for Wednesday, February 21, 2024 at 8:30 am by District Court Judge Joseph Boedecker

"Our duty is to uphold the principles of the law, and seek accountability for the loss of a life and ensuring that justice prevails for the victim and their grieving loved ones," said Macomb County Prosecutor Peter J. Lucido.

The Macomb County Prosecutor's Office represents the people. We are committed to achieving justice and following the laws of the State of Michigan. All that are accused of a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
